Mighty Mites Undeclared

BY LAURIE
LAZAZZERA

The Torino Mighty Mites coached by Carl Warren continued their unbeaten streak to 9-0 and remained the only undefeated team in the Squirts West Division. They were tied with the Chicopee Hawks 6-0 until they played the Hawks and beat them 5-4 in a hard fought game. The Mites were losing 3-1, but then came from behind with 4 quick goals. Then they went on to beat Ludlow 2-0 and whip the Chicopee Colts 10-0. They also traveled to Troy, New York where they battled to a 1-1 tie. It was an intra-league game. They now have the best goals for and goals against averages in the league and have boosted their point total to 18 big points! And of course the person they have to thank for this is their superb goalie David Liptak. He has really kept them in every game by making some really fantastic saves, but then again he also has had some help too!! With defensemen Frank Rondelletto, Gary Farendino, Pete Borrello, Gary Webster, Tommy Dussault and Joey Dussault in front of him he really has nothing to worry about. The Mighty Mites have 3 sturdy lines which should keep them winning for the rest of the season. The number one line is Joey Warren centering Kevin Mercadante and Mike LaZazzera. Tommy Hannon centers Dean Liptak and Kevin Kamyk completing the second line. The third line is the rotating line, it consists of Danny Decosmos, Pete Sibilia, Mark Petucci, and Chris Juzba. The Mighty Mites also have 4 of their top players in the top 4 positions in the scoring race for the Squirts West Division. Joey Warren is first, Tom Hannon second, Mike LaZazzera third and Dean Liptak fourth. The other major factor in the Mighty Mites success is due to all their fans or their cheering section, which is really made up of mostly parents. They are always there at every game, even practices, helping each other, trying to outcheer everyone else and most of all keeping up their boy's spirits when the going gets rough.

words and musings...

By Monty Marlowe

At some moment during the holidays a curious thought came to mind: How did people manage to do all the things that seem so necessary nowadays without the use of a telephone?

How did they cope with making arrangements to get the youngsters home from college for the holidays... how did they order that last minute gift without dialing the department store... what about the flowers to be sent to a special friend across the country... the guests that must be invited to the party... what did they do with all their time on Christmas day if they didn't sit by that electronic gadget and try to reach families and friends only to receive messages time and time again as to why their calls were not going through and to be told "this is a recording."

And just think: less than a hundred years ago the youngsters couldn't even call Santa and tell him what they wanted for Christmas!

The United States celebrated the signing of the Declaration of Independence for a hundred years without telephoning anybody about it. The New York Stock Exchange did business without buying or selling any stocks via telephone. Settlers stretched this country across the continent... built railroads, bridges... raised families and celebrated holidays without the telephone. In fact, the Bible was written, Romeo wooed Juliet, and Mozart even composed Don Giovanni without the use of the telephone.

There is perhaps nothing else that controls our living like the tyranny of the telephone. We open our mail at our leisure. We answer the doorbell at our convenience—or not at all. We decide what time we will have our meals... what time we'll go to sleep.

But just let that telephone ring and all heck breaks loose! In sleet or rain or black of night... upstairs or downstairs... in bed or bathtub... in summer, winter or fall... over hill and dale... and even with Santa Claus climbing down the chimney or racing across the rooftops... we have to get to that telephone.

Let the chips (furniture or bones) fall where they may—nothing else matters. Then what? It's likely to be a wrong number or some one asks: "What are you doing?"

Letters to Editor

Dear Editor:

I am most concerned about the status of the proposed Giles Halladay Memorial Library in Feeding Hills.

It is time for the Town of Agawam to offer more than just studies and considerations for library services in this town. It is time to appropriate and allocate funds to build a facility that can properly and adequately provide for the demands being made on the system.

The question of need seems to have been agreed upon but the hard matter of money and priorities is now having to be reckoned with. Agawam has long neglected its capital improvement program. As the need for major outlays of funds to replace inadequate town buildings arose, the Town Meeting saw fit to form various study committees; and, after these groups of citizens gave many hours of study and formulated plans for a particular purpose, the Town Meeting decided it couldn't afford the project and swept it under the rug. The rug is now bulging with the desperately needed,

TOWN OF AGAWAM
AGAWAM,
MASSACHUSETTS 01001

DEAR AGAWAM,

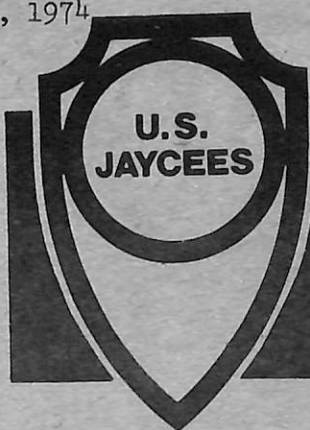

WE ARE A NEW MEMBER OF YOUR COMMUNITY. WE LIKE YOUR TOWN AND THE FRIENDLINESS OF THOSE WE'VE MET. OUR GOAL IS TO BECOME AN INTEGRAL PART OF YOUR TOWN BY SERVING AS YOUR WEEKLY NEWSPAPER ... BY COMMUNICATING WITHIN THE COMMUNITY ... A CAUSE IN WHICH, WE BELIEVE, WE ALL HAVE A VITAL STAKE. WHILE WE ARE NEW IN TOWN ... WE ARE NOT NEW AT SERVING AS A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER THAT WILL REACH EVERY CITIZEN AND EVERY BUSINESSMAN. WE KNOW THAT A GOOD LOCAL WEEKLY NEWSPAPER CULTIVATES THE COMMUNITY NEWS SO INTENSIVELY THAT ANY OTHER PUBLICATION CAN BE ONLY A SECONDARY INFLUENCE ON THE DAY-TO-DAY HAPPENINGS IN THE COMMUNITY. THE THOROUGHNESS OF COMMUNITY NEWS COVERAGE - ON A REGULAR BASIS - IS WHAT COMMENDS THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER TO THE READER AND ADVERTISER. IT IS PROBABLY THE MOST READ OF ANY CONSUMER PUBLICATION.

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER IS THE STORY OF THE HUMAN HEART. AND, HEART IT IS THAT CHALLENGES THE STAFF OF THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER TO BE CONCERNED...TO WORK AGAINST DEADLINES... COMPRESSING HOURS INTO MINUTES, AT TIMES...TO WORK LONG HOURS...AND TO TAKE WORK HOME WITH THEM, IF ONLY IN THEIR HEARTS.

THE SADNESS OF OUR HISTORY IS THAT MORTAL IMAGINATION CANNOT SUMMON THE SAME GRIEF FOR ALL THE CASUALTIES OF A DEVASTATING WAR AS IT CAN FOR ONE INJURED CHILD IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD. TEN, FIFTY, A HUNDRED YEARS FROM NOW THE "BIG STORY" IN AGAWAM WILL NOT BE THE STOCK QUOTATION OR WHO'S WINNING THE NATIONAL PENNANT. WHEN THE HISTORY OF AGAWAM IS READ IT WILL BE THE LOCAL SCHOOL ACTIVITIES, THE BUILDING OF A NEW LIBRARY, THE DEATH OF A BELOVED CITIZEN; THE RECORDING OF ANOTHER BIRTH, A WEDDING, A SOLDIER HOME ON LEAVE; A LOCAL STUDENT WINNING A SCHOLARSHIP.

THE SERVICE OF A LOCAL NEWSPAPER WILL CONTINUE TO SURVIVE AS THE MOST DISTINCTIVE, MOST HEALTHY TYPE OF JOURNALISM EVER PRODUCED AS LONG AS THE COMMUNITY ITSELF SUPPORTS IT. WON'T YOU ACCEPT US AS A NEW "CITIZEN" IN AGAWAM?
